

About Us

Conquest Solutions was born to provide both businesses and individuals with personalized IT service. Our goal is to provide the best, most reliable solutions and advice. We take pride in our work and want to make every customer a very satisfied customer.

Conquest Solutions was officially licensed in March of 2004 by Lance and Rose Retter. Previously, Lance Retter was employed as Systems Administrator by a large publicly traded company. He is now president of Conquest Solutions and uses his knowledge of the IT industry to help other companies and individuals make strong, productive IT decisions.

Rose Retter, Vice-President, is dedicated to marketing and customer relations. She and Lance are both very enthusiastic and possess the skills to ensure that Conquest's clients feel like they have the best customer service in the industry.
